
Interventional Cardiologist – Job Description

Experience: Minimum 2 Years of experience

Location: Gujarat

Role Overview

An interventional cardiologist focuses on treating conditions like blocked arteries, heart attacks, and structural heart issues using procedures such as angioplasty and stent placement.

Key Responsibilities

- Perform diagnostic procedures like cardiac catheterization
 - Conduct interventions such as:
 - Angioplasty (balloon dilation of arteries)
 - Stent placement
 - Atherectomy (plaque removal)
 - Treat emergencies like Myocardial Infarction
 - Interpret imaging results (angiograms, echocardiograms)
 - Manage patients before, during, and after procedures
 - Collaborate with cardiac surgeons and general cardiologists
 - Provide long-term treatment plans and follow-up care
-

Skills & Competencies

- Strong procedural and technical skills
- Decision-making under pressure (especially in emergencies)
- Excellent hand-eye coordination
- Knowledge of cardiovascular imaging techniques
- Communication and patient-care skills

Educational Requirements

- MBBS (or equivalent medical degree)
- DM/DNB in Cardiology
- Valid Gujarat Medical Council (GMC) registration is mandatory

Please share your resume at: contact@pmspl.net.in